

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For More Information:

Anita Budd
203-966-2340 ext 110
info@sequentconsulting.com.

Thomas Tesluk Appointed Chairman of Advisory Council of the Johns Hopkins University Bologna Center

NEW CANAAN, Conn., September 29th, 2008 – Sequent Consulting LLC announces that founder and Managing Director, Thomas Tesluk, has been appointed Chairman of the Advisory Council of the Bologna Center, part of the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies.

Dr. Ken Keller, Director of the Bologna Center, said “We are delighted that Tom has agreed to serve as our new Chairman, replacing Naneen Neubohn who has served the Council with distinction for almost 20 years. Tom’s distinguished background in international business and his long service as a member of the Council will provide us with valued insight and leadership now and into the future.”

The Bologna Center Advisory Council, which convenes each year in Bologna, Italy, consists of 30 members drawn from the senior levels of US and European business, finance, and government circles. The Council’s mission is to provide strategic advice and support to the Center’s Director.

Tesluk, who resides with family in New Canaan, Connecticut, also serves as a member of the board of the World Affairs Forum of Stamford, Connecticut and is a member of the International Trade Council of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce.

The Bologna Center, founded in 1955, is the leading American graduate school for international affairs in Europe. The Center’s small student body and broad international diversity help students develop the ability to communicate across national borders and cultures, while fostering a sense of community and collaboration among the nations of the world. Today the Bologna Center has more than 6,000 alumni representing more than 100 nationalities.

Sequent Consulting LLC is a management consulting business based in New Canaan, Connecticut which provides expertise in planning and executing global business development strategies for small, medium, and large companies. More information about the company may be found at www.sequentconsulting.com.

###